Obituary

Norma Jean Stubbs was born on October 9, 1967 to the late Charles and Betty Jean Stubbs. She was the second eldest of her siblings. The youngest brother Gerald Stubbs preceded her in death.

Norma Jean was educated in the New York City Public School System. After graduating high school, she attended The College of New Rochelle. Norma was brought up in Mt. Hope Baptist Church as a child, where her relationship with the Lord first began.

Norma could have a conversation with anyone she encountered, people just seemed to be drawn to her. She also had a way of sharing her day, her grandkids and her cat, Autumn on social media in the most descriptive and hilarious ways. People really enjoyed her stories.

As a young girl, Norma Jean worked at the neighborhood supermarket on 151st Street where she lived. She would eventually gain employment at Alexander's Department Store and at the Ye Olde Cleaners. Her last job was at Sanctuary for Families.

On March of 2011, Norma and her nieces, Damaya and Kanaya found themselves in a battle for their lives. A fire ripped through the apartment building where Norma was residing. However, without hesitation Norma rushed quickly to save her nieces. This was a battle she almost lost on that day, but her strength, courage and God's grace got her and her nieces through it.

In 2013, Norma joined Whosoever Will Baptist Church where she would join the Missionary Ministry. Norma loved her new church home and church family. She used to invite everyone she knew to church. She knew and loved the Lord, and she wanted everyone to know and love the Lord as well.

On Saturday, October 31, 2020, Norma Jean Stubbs went home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She is survived by: her daughter, Deltricia Stubbs; her two grandchildren, Jadel Stubbs and Jada Woolfolk; her brother, Kevin Woods; her sister, Charmayne Stubbs-Goodman; her brother-in-law, Ben Goodman; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and great nieces who affectionately called her "Nana".

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
