Obituary

With profound sadness we announce the passing of Annette Caroline Henderson on November 3, 2020.

Annette was born on February 19, 1936, in Harlem Hospital, in Harlem, New York to James A. Toliver and Matilda Brodie Toliver.

Annette attended and graduated from Julia Richmond High School in Manhattan, New York. After graduating high school, she married her high school sweetheart, Henry James Henderson on November 15, 1953. Annette was a loving and devoted wife to her husband of 66 years and a loving mother to four children. Annette loved her husband, and her children unconditionally, and she lived life to the fullest.

Annette is predeceased by her parents, James and Matilda Toliver and three brothers, Benjamin, Robert, and David Toliver.

She leaves to cherish her memory her husband, Henry a/k/a “Skippy”; four children, David, Sr., Gary, Wynette, and Edward; four grandchildren, Chanel Davis, David Henderson, Jr., Jermaine Henderson, and Brittany Henderson; six great-grandchildren, and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She will be truly missed.

Poem of Life

*Life is but a stopping place,
a pause in what's to be.
A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place
far greater than we know.
For some the journey is quicker,
for some the journey is slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
and find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord.*

Acknowledgements

The family of Annette C. Henderson would like to thank everyone for their continued support given to the family.
May God bless each of you.
