

He is Mindful Of His Own

*I know not what the year will bring,
 But this I know, my heart will sing;
 For He who gives the gift of years has power to still my doubts and fears.
 And if the way be dark or fair, I shall not doubt God answers prayer.
 Though I may walk the depths, of night,
 His lamp of Truth shall give me light.
 To me there is no foreign land, For with me is His guiding hand.
 And God, Who heeds the sparrow's fall, will always answer when I call.
 I shall go forward, upright, free; For
 He will walk the way with me.
 I leave this year with God alone, For
 He is mindful of His own.

Obituary

Nyla Travae Bond was born May 13, 2000 in the Bronx, NY to Shadonna Watson and Eric Bond. She leaves many to mourn her untimely period of passing, which includes her Mother Shadonna, Father Eric, Stepfather Alan “Scorpio”, Brothers Vashon “Shonnie” and Derek “DJ”, as well as her Sisters Genoa and Alàn and son Chance.

Nyla has an entire host of relatives, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends along with their respective children, more than could possibly fit on a page, all who are certain to keep her in their hearts and memories forever.

Nyla was a bright light in the lives of family, friends, and the greater community. She was a beloved daughter, sister, friend, and new mother. Her smile, spirit, bright mind, and infectious laugh stay with all of us who were fortunate enough to have her touch our lives.

Nyla was truly one of a kind. A proud Infinity KIPPster, at KIPP Infinity Middle School, a skilled basketball player for the Kennedy Lady Knights basketball team while attending Humanities HS in the Bronx. She was a talented writer, math scholar, a loving daughter, sister, and new mother. It is also said that “she could school a number of the boys in her class on the basketball court”. Many would say she had a comedic sense of humor and would light up our lives with laughter every day. She possessed a hugely forgiving heart, and a quiet warmth some of us were lucky enough to know. Nyla would always get back up again, in spite of the challenges in front of her, and we will honor and remember her as a treasured member of our lives forever.

Mother's Letter

Soldier

When we think of a soldier, I think we can all agree that we think of a selfless, determined and honorable being who protects the lives of others.

A soldier inspires, walks with confidence, fearlessness, perseverance and most of all strength.

My daughter was and forever will be a soldier, my soldier and a soldier for her son, family and friends. She has touched the hearts of many. So, today and the days to come for the rest of my life, our lives, and lifetimes to come she will continue to walk with each and every one of us.

The world needs love and compassion. If you knew Nyla or had the opportunity to meet her, you are blessed. Nyla embodied so much love and compassion that God has called her home to serve freely. She will forever be in our hearts and by our sides.

I know she is smiling at just how many people love her. She would not want anyone to be sad over her. She would want to be the person who brightens your day even for a second. As we honor her, some may be confused, sad, and angry. Let Nyla bring you peace in knowing she is with you.

There is a hole in my heart that can't be filled, there are questions that no one has the answer to, there is pain that can't be described but my soldier, my Nyla will live right here in my heart.
