INURNMENT

You gave no one a last farewell, Nor ever said good-bye. You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why.
A million times we will miss you.
A million times we will cry.
If love alone could have saved
you, you never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place,
no one else can fill. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you the day God took you home.
I know your in a better place.
I thank God He made you our brother while you were here on earth.

-Yolanda Lewis Brown
