Obituary

On May 28, 1963, the Lord blessed us with the birthday of Tammie Michelle Thompson. She was born to Robert and Lessie Thompson in New York City, Harlem Hospital.

Tammie graduated from Mary Bertram High School, and she then went on to Cheyney State University. From there she worked for the New York City Department of Corrections, she retired as a Captain after 25 years on the job on September 5, 2005. She also worked for Sanofi Pharmaceutical where she helped make the flu vaccination.

Her hobbies were going to Walmart aka Wally World, playing scratch offs and being in it to win it. Tammie's biggest hobby was traveling with her partner, Jax. She enjoyed hanging out with family at her Aunt Linda and Uncle Archie's house in New Jersey. Tammie, Yvette and Sharon were called the "Golden Girls" by Troy aka "Fat Boy". Tammie made it her business to talk to her grandmother Clara Mack and aunt Linda everyday. She also spent long talks over the phone with her sister Robin. She also enjoyed watching basketball and football. Tammie will be extremely missed forever in our hearts.

Tammie leaves to mourn: her partner, Jackie Ritter; grandmother, Clara Mack; her sisters, Robin Williams and Kimberly Thompson; brother, Robert Thompson, Jr.; aunts, Linda, Jackie and Mattie; uncles, Anthony and Archie; and a host of cousins who loved her dearly and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
