Obituary

Alfred Alexander Wattley also known as “Al”, was born in Harlem, New York on March 14, 1930.

He went to Cardinal Hayes High School and graduated with honors. After graduation he joined the United States Army and served for many years. After returning from Europe he started working for the United States Postal Service, and retired after 40 years of service. Al prided himself with intelligence by self-teaching himself how to speak fluently in German, Chinese, French and his native language English.

During his years of service, he met the love of his life Ada Marie Waddle (now deceased) and married her in 1955. They stayed together for 64 years, and the Bible promises that they will see each other again.

Al became one of Jehovah’s Witnesses in 1972, being baptized around that time. Al loved and devoted his life as one of Jehovah’s Witnesses until he passed.

Al is survived by: a son, Charles Leon; daughter, Simone Wattley Williams; grandchildren, Chalise Bellemey, Chanika Wattley, Ashley Wattley, Chade Wattley, Ruth Wattley, Sarah Wattley, Rachel Wattley and Michael Malik Williams; and a host of great grandchildren. Al also has his extended family, all of those in Jehovah’s organization who are well recognized.

Isaiah 33:24

And no resident will say: “I am sick.” The people dwelling in the land will be pardoned for their error.

Song #151

He Will Call

(Job 14:13-15)

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day, then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away, replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing for the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder, for our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever, as the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away, will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay, from death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be: Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing for the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder, for our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever, as the work of his own hand.
