

Precious Memories Of Carrie Dixon

Divine intervention had it so that Carrie Dixon answered God's call "to walk around heaven all day," Friday, November 27, 2020, the Lord sanctioned His host of angels and welcomed her into his Heavenly home.

Carrie Dixon was born October 26, 1932 in Columbus, Georgia to the late Benton Ezekiel and Josephine Wiley. She graduated from South Girard High School in Phoenix City, Alabama.

She met and married Malachi Dixon, Jr., while he was stationed in Fort Benning, Georgia. The family relocated to Englewood, New Jersey and has resided in the area ever since.

Carrie gave her life to the Lord at an early age and through much prayer she became a member of Community Baptist Church of Englewood, NJ. Throughout her Christian walk, she was known for demonstrating a giving and supportive spirit. Her favorite scripture was Psalm 100.

Her greatest joy was family time, where she enjoyed preparing home-cooked meals. One of her favorite recipes was making banana bread and pudding.

Carrie was warm and friendly with a caring heart. Her generosity and compassion were a source of encouragement to her family and friends. She was loved and respected by everyone who knew her. She was a loving, caring dedicated wife, mother, and friend. Her loving ways and faith in God defined her best and she will be greatly missed.

Carrie was predeceased, by her husband, mother, father, and brothers.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Denise, Barry, Janet (Thackus) and Mark; two grandchildren, Damien and Gernard; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Her special daughters, Tamara, Velma and Donna.

Good Bye To All

To my family and friends, do not mourn for me, for I am in a better place. Sorry, that I had to leave, but I am resting.

Though the past few months were tough, but by the Grace Of God, he allowed me to spend sometime sharing with many of you how much I love and appreciated you. He also allowed me some quality time with my family in preparation for this journey. Please remember that I love you and thanks for the times that we had together. I can only hope that I was the kind of example that our Heavenly Father wanted me to be as a wife, mother, and a friend.

Thanks for all who went the extra mile to make sure that my last days were comfortable, but most of all encouraging. I leave no regrets. I hope to meet you again, someday.

Sincerely, Carrie

Special Tribute

Since our first recollections of our mother, she has conquered the improbable, done the impossible and reached the intangible. She will always be a "superwoman, and queen" in our minds. We will always remember simple times watching tv, and watching her cook. However, the things that we will miss the most are her wisdom and inner beauty as a woman of God.

Although she is gone from this life, she will live on in our hearts and minds. Death may have claimed her body, but not her joy, her spirit, or the things that truly made her a phenomenal servant of God. It is a personal goal that one day we will be able to achieve the spiritual and emotional wealth that she has accumulated over the years. Memories of her will live on through the honor and respect that we have for her by finishing the tasks at hand, because we know that this is what she would want us to do.

We LOVE you Mommy, Denise, Barry, Janet and Mark

We Gave Fler Love, But God Gave Fler Peace

As her family we will miss her smile and her loving hands But being children of God In Him we trust and understand God knew that she needed What none of us could give And He took her under his wing So that we her family might live Live in peace with the knowledge That she is shedding no more tears Suffering no more pain And experiencing no more fears All of our love and prayers Gave her strength to keep holding on But peace could never be hers Until all of her pain was gone For her the storm has passed And the thunder now has ceased We gave her all our love But God has given her peace
