Obituary

Daughter-Mother-Niece-Friend

Taliah Samon Dye was born on August 24, 1978 to Sharon Dye and the late Kenneth Harris in Passaic, NJ. She was the oldest of three children.

Taliah was educated in the Passaic School System. She was very talented and worked many jobs. At an early age, she found herself working in childcare which was her passion.

Taliah joined the Saint Paul Baptist Church of Passaic at a very early age. If you knew Taliah, you knew she loved life. Anyone she came in contact with felt the lasting impact, and she would give you the shirt off her back. There is no doubt that she had a home away from home, and that was Africa. She loved both Ghana and Nigeria. She felt like she belonged there.

Taliah was preceded in death by her father, Kenneth Harris.

She leaves to cherish her beautiful memories; her four children, Talajah Dye, Jadaï Dye, Trashon Dye, and Travon Dye, all of Passaic; her mother, Sha'Ron Dye; one granddaughter, Kamari; two siblings and two sister-in-laws, Kahwayne Dye of Passaic, and Ivin Dye-Henderson of Union, NJ; Adrienne Dollar of Passaic, NJ and Kean Batson of Brooklyn, NY; three aunts, her Bestie, Beatrice Dye (Issaka) of Passaic, Charlene Harris of Passaic, and Jill Dye of Union, NJ; one uncle, Dewayne Dye of Union, NJ; her best friends, Twana Mitchell, and Quanisha Allen; special aunt, Olivia Webster; her special sisters, Odessa James, Tanica Hendley' and Abiba Yukubu. She leaves Eze Okorieagu, Henry Stone, Akeelah, Zemira and Kevin Goodman; and a host of sisters/cousins, aunts, uncles, many godchildren, family and friends.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
