

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me. I will be okay. Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay.
Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong. I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.
Don't cry for me. It was just my time, but I will see you someday on the other side.
Don't cry for me. I am not alone. The angels are with me to welcome me home.
Don't cry for me, for I have no fear. All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.
Don't cry for me. This is not the end. I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again.

Obituary

On November 9, 2002, God blessed Alshameen and Demond with a son whom they named Quayon Martin Brown.

On October 29, 2020, God opened His Heavenly gates and welcomed Quayon into His kingdom.

Quayon was born in Newark, NJ where he attended Louis A. Spencer Elementary School and also attended East Orange public schools. Quayon was due to graduate high school June of 2021.

Quayon had a love for sports. He played football for the Orange Bangles in Orange, NJ. He also played basketball and video games with his friends.

For those who knew Quayon, he was like a bright light that shined whenever he was around. He was also a jokester. And also had great dance moves. Quayon would crack jokes about his friends and family and would also give them nicknames like his god mother “Shamone” whom he would call “Lamonya”. Quayon knew how to get on your nerves and be lovable at the same time. Quayon we love you and you will be missed.

Quayon leaves to cherish his memory, his mom and dad, Alshameen McMillan and Demond Brown; four sisters, Niyarah McMillan, Zaniyah Brown, Samiyah Kirkland, Zah’asia Brown; two brothers, Quamir Brown, Zahir Brown; his paternal grandfather, Curtis Shambley; five aunts, Tracey Parker, Taheisha McMillan, Kameesha McMillan, Latoya Brown, Tamesha Brown; two uncles, Curtis Brown, Christopher Chase; one very special uncle, Steven Johnson; god mother; two god brothers, and a host of family and friends.

Quayon was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Katherine Johnson, Martin Johnson and Paternal grandmother, Denise Brown.
