

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

*Elder JB McNeill, Officiating
(Mt. Zion Pentecostal Church of God)*

Venice Dorothy Morgan, a long-time resident of Elizabeth New Jersey, died peacefully on Monday, December 14, 2020 at Trinitas Hospital-Brother Bonaventure Care Center, where she was recuperating from brain surgery. She was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, sister and aunt.

Venice was born on September 06, 1944, to Theophilus and Annie Watson in St. Thomas, Jamaica. She migrated from Jamaica, West Indies, at a young age to build a better life for herself and her former husband, Malachi Morgan. Venice was an amazing chef. She received her certification as a chef in Jamaica and then went on to receive an Associate's degree in her field of studies in New Jersey.

In the mid-1980s, she worked at the Newark International Airport in New Jersey, supporting transportation in the logistics division. Venice displayed the characteristic of loyalty, dedication and commitment. She was never too busy to stop and lend a helping hand. In her leisure time, Venice enjoyed reading and listening to poetry. She also penned a few poems of her own. Venice loved good food and socializing. She also enjoyed attending movies and plays with friends. She had a wonderful smile that could light up a room.

Venice spent time in Virginia, California and North Carolina. But always returned home to New Jersey. She was a woman who treasured her independence.

Venice was also a devoted and proud member of Mt. Zion Pentecostal Church of God, Inc. in Elizabeth, New Jersey. Bishop Jesse McNeill was her pastor. Mt. Zion Pentecostal was her first church home. She was devoted and committed to worshipping the Lord.

Venice enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, it was the chief joy of her life. She leaves to cherish their memories, her children; sons, Michael, Errol, Neuton, and Kevin Morgan; daughter Sandra; brother, Newton Watson; sisters, Grace Watson, and Claudette Watson-Headley; cousins, Avis, Hyacinth, Sybil, Jennifer, Jackie, Gil, daughter-in-laws Sandra D. Morgan, Donna Morgan and Sharita Morgan, and a host of beloved grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives, friends, and co-workers.
