Obituary

On Monday, December 21, 2020, Annie Love Goolsby passed away peacefully in East Orange, New Jersey.

Annie was born October 24, 1935 to Willie and Elover Ransom in Albany, Georgia. She was raised in a Baptist household, which laid the foundation for her faith and love for the Christ. That faith and love led her to later become one of Jehovah's Witnesses. She advanced through the Albany school system and later moved to New Jersey where she attend Essex County College in Newark, NJ. She worked as a home healthcare provider and retired from Community Healthcare in Orange, New Jersey. She also worked as a Security Officer for the Orange Township School System in New Jersey and received several awards for outstanding performance. Annie had a passion for the creative arts. She was a self-taught artist and enjoyed drawing and painting. She was commissioned to paint replicas of popular masterpieces. She also enjoyed singing, gardening, and traveling. Annie had a great sense of style and had a passion for cooking. She was known for her famous peach cobbler. She was very generous and liked to share with others. After retiring, Sister Goolsby went on to share her love for Jehovah God by becoming a Regular Pioneer in the Ministry. She will be greatly missed.

Annie Goolsby is survived by five children, Joan MacElree, D. Jean LeGrand, George W. Goolsby Jr., Anthony MacElree, Meloney Morales; and siblings Doris Way of West Virginia, W. Pearl Johnson of Indiana, William Ransom of Florida. She was preceded in death by her husband George W. Goolsby Sr., Father- Willie Ransom, Mother- Elover Wheeler-Ransom. Sister- Vivian, Brothers- Charles, James, Primus and Albert. Lovingly known as "Mumma" by her Grandchildren-Tara Long- Williams, Nolana Long, David G. Long Jr., Katie Ann LeGrand, Patrick C. LeGrand III, Michael J. LeGrand, Benjamin P. LeGrand, Maria, Anita Morales, Anderson Love, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren and a host of other close relatives and beloved friends.
