OBITUARY

Beresford Wright was born in Saint James, Jamaica West Indies to the parents of Leopold Wright and Gladys Andrews on March 12, 1933. He was the only child to Gladys who passed away when Beresford was 4 years old. He was raised by his aunt Hilda, in Montego Bay, Jamaica.

Beresford attended school in Montego Bay and graduated with a High School degree.

He drove the city bus in Jamaica for a living when he met Rosalie. They got married on July 4th, 1970 and five children came from this union.

Known by many as Sony and Rosie, they migrated with their 4 children to Brooklyn, New York. Mr. Sony drove the school bus transporting children to and from school and after school programs. Being around children gave him purpose and joy. He was the strength to his family after losing his wife, by giving love, support, knowledge and lots of laughter to his kids and grandkids.

During his down time Mr Sony would be seen at the car track racing his RC mini electric and gas cars having friendly competition with his son Joseph and friends. One of his greatest pleasures was going on road trips with his son Joseph and his daughter-in-law Jina competing in RC car races.

Beresford Wright leaves behind to carry on his legacy, his five kids, Juneann, Rosemarie, Derrick, Llewellyn and Joseph, 9 grand kids, Burnette, Julian, Jonathan, ONeil, Samantha, Derrick Jr. Vanessa, Mekah and Tiffany, 8 great-grand kids, one son-in-law Sean, 3 daughters-in-laws, Jina, Mercedes and Paula.

To everyone with whom Mr. Wright aka Mr. Sony came in contact, he was just a loving soul. We will miss him but we are thanking God for having lent him to us and we are assured that he is now resting with his wife and the Lord.

REMEMBER ME

To the living, I am gone.
To the sorrowful, I will never return.
To the angry, I was cheated but to the happy,
I am at peace and to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon the shore
gazing at a beautiful sea,
Remember me.
As you look in awe at a mighty forest
and its grand majesty,
Remember me.
Remember me in your hearts, in your thoughts,
and the memories of the time we loved.
The times we cried, the battle I fought,
and the times we laughed.
For if you always think of me,
I will have never gone.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
