Obituary

Alease Idella Davis, 57, of Yonkers New York, was born on May 16, 1963 in Stamford Connecticut to Frederick P. Davis Sr. and the late Victoria J. Lewis Davis. Alease was found deceased in her Yonkers home on December 25, 2020. Our hearts are left aching, but we know that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

Alease lived her life partially in Stamford, CT, Ossining, NY and finally Yonkers, NY. She was educated in the public school system in Ossining New York. In 1997 she met and married her dear friend Christopher Davis.

Alease was a free soul and followed her heart. She encountered many life struggles but overcame them and persevered. Although she had many health challenges, she fought them fiercely and never let those issues get her down. Throughout her illnesses, she continued to show support for her family and friends in many ways. Alease will always be remembered for her crazy mouth and loving ways. She will be missed and forever in our hearts.

Alease was predeceased by her mother Victoria Jean Lewis Davis, and her son Jamal Ali Thomas. She leaves to cherish her memory her father, Frederick P. Davis Sr., her Step-Mother Sharon D. Davis; her children Nikia N. Gonzalez, Victoria K. Gonzalez and Jesse A. Thomas; her grandchildren Dae'Zhon L. Peterson, Eric Scott Jr., Jamal A. Thomas Jr., Dayvaughn N. Scott, Tyler G. Scott, Altarik J. Gonzalez, Jakai Joyner and Jace A. Thomas; her great-grandchild Amir J. Scott; her siblings Antoinette Lewis, Frederick P. Davis Jr., Phillip L. Davis Sr., Edward F. Davis and Shaunae D. Davis Carre; and a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins and Friends.

Eulogy

Angel

Tear drops, slow and steady
The pain so real and true
God took another one of my angels, and that angel, dear, was you.
Angel wings, upon the clouds
Your body softly sleeps
Hush my angel, No more tears you have to weep.

Your family will never forget you, so rest your little head.
God will look after you,
Now you are truly alive,
Your spirit soars beyond the stars and moon,
Your legacy will survive.
Close your pretty eyes,
No more tears, just rest,
Let your soul lie peacefully, mommy we know you did your best.

Your Loving Children
