Obituary

Harold Henry Sanders went to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in Bronx, NY on January 2, 2021, due to a brief illness.

He was born to Jeanette Little and Leon Sanders Sr. on January 19, 1959 in Manhattan, Harlem, NY. He had an 11th grade education and went on to serve in the military as an Aviation Mechanic working with army helicopters. His eldest nephew followed in his footsteps and joined the Army to keep tradition of army men. From a young age, he was an adventurous soul. He was loyal and a hard worker. The other skills he adopted during his lifetime was the skill of carpentry. He was exceptional in Math.

Although he never married, and never bore any children of his own, his nieces and nephews became his children, which he loved most. He loved to laugh and enjoy telling good jokes. His enjoyment came from being among family and friends. He enjoyed listening to oldies but goodies Funk and R & B music. His favorite R & B group was Cameo in which he kept a shoe-box of all their music. He was a lover of sports primarily basketball, if he couldn't watch it on TV, he would go out his way to listen on the radio. During his lifetime, he meant well to those who came in contact with him, always lending a hand to support and assist those in need. He was generous kind warmhearted and a good listener. Most of all he loved God.

He leaves to mourn, His brother Leon Sanders Jr., sisters Cassandra Gasby and Hilda Sanders. Host of nephews, Nieces and great nephews and nieces and cousins.

He is preceded by his Mother Jeanette Little, and father Leon Sanders Sr, his Sisters Wanda Lynn Little, and Benita Sanders, his Brother Jack Sanders, His Aunt Lillie Little, Aunt Doris Thomas, Aunt Marion Hanson, His uncle Frank Little and Uncle Floyd Little. Niece Sharifa P. Jones. His Cousins Vilda Thomas, Bobby Smith and Darian Smith.

'Say not in grief 'he is no more' but live in thankfulness that he was' For we were saved in this hope, but hope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees? Romans 8:24

And We know that all things work together for Good to those who love God to those who are called according to his purpose Roman 8:28
