Obituary

Shirley Rose Williams (Pearl) was born on the 26th of May 1943 in St. Ann Jamaica W.I. to Elease and Leonard Williams. Shirley attended Beecher town primary school and later moved to Kingston where she attended Camperdown High School. After completing her studies, Shirley seized the opportunity to immigrate to the United States and build a life in the late 1960's. She was the first in her family to move to the states, and paved the way for many to follow. Shirley settled in the Bronx, New York and worked in the nursing department at Calvary hospital for many years until she retired.

One of Shirley's greatest joys was the birth of her beloved only son Howard Scott. Throughout her life, Shirley's caring nature could be felt through the compassion she held for her patients and the overflowing love she poured onto her family near and far.

Shirley was a devoted member of Grace Pentecostal Church and loved the Lord with all her heart. She was deeply passionate about seeking the heart of God and dedicated the remaining years of her life faithfully to the Lord and her church family.

On the 22nd of December 2020, Shirley transitioned into eternity and is survived by her 8 sisters: Carol, Joyce, Valda, Lorna, Yvonne, Paulette, Patricia and Charlene; 2 brothers: Lenworth and Neville; nieces, nephews and 2 granddaughters. She was preceded in death by her parents and son. She will forever be missed. May her soul rest in peace.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
