Reflections

Brenda Lloyd-Bryce, the beloved daughter of Killar and Lucy P. Lloyd was born on May 22, 1947 in Harlem Hospital. On January 6, 2021, our beloved Lord, called her home to be with her other siblings and parents surrounded by God's peace and love.

Brenda was raised in the Bronx where she lived with her parents and siblings in Castle Hill and Bronxdale housing. At fifteen her parents moved to Park Slope, Brooklyn where she attended P.S. 51 and later graduated from John Jay High School in 1965.

In 1979, she met St. Valle Bryce on vacation in Barbados. Brenda and Valle gave birth to their son, Brandon St. Valle Bryce on September 23, 1986. Brenda and Valle were married on April 10, 1987.

She started working for the Board of Education Retirement System as a secretary in the 1980s. She retired from the Board of Education on October 17, 2015. Throughout her life she loved to travel to Barbados and went on many cruises.

Brenda leaves behind: her husband, St. Valle Bryce; her son, Brandon Bryce; her cousins, Trudy Edwards and Alfred Crowley; her nieces and nephew, Walter Fraizer, Juanita Fraizer, Estelle Carter, Eugene Fraizer, Yolanda Siders-Lewis, Renita Horton, Ebony Lloyd, Mia Davenport, Kim Lloyd, Lakeisha Timmons, Danielle Siders, and Daniel Siders; and a host of other cousins, nieces, nephews, in-laws, coworkers, and friends.

A Memorial Prayer

You never looked back, you never complained,
you never let hardship, keep you restrained.

We saw through your eyes, Jesus' wisdom and power.
You showed us God's grace, at its finest hour.

You were humbled, and gifted, and patient with me.

You were who I've always wanted to be.

I asked for your healing, so you'd stay here with me,
but God knew you were tired, so He set your soul free.

Now I won't waste a minute, "wishing" life to be fair.

I'll trust, as you did, in God's answer to prayer.

Please look in my eyes, and see from my heart.
I know you are with me,

Although we're apart.

And if you see tears—don't worry I'm fine.
I just feel so special, that God let you be mine!
