Obituary

Earnest Brunson is the youngest of thirteen children to the late Gracie Camilla Conyers - Brunson and Rufus Brunson, Sr. He was born on December 29th, 1955 in Summerton, South Carolina. In search of better opportunities, Gracie Conyers-Brunson decided to relocate her six youngest children and three grandchildren to Winter Garden, Fl.

In the late 1970's, Earnest Brunson moved to NYC. He met a young woman named Marsha Bambi-Jane Dixon whom he fell in love with and later married. They lived in Harlem, N.Y. and soon gave birth to a baby boy named Randy Dimiere Dominique Brunson. Seven years later, they welcomed a lovely baby girl named Danielle Candice Negra Brunson. In addition, he had a god daughter named Sha'worne Quontaye Manuel-Smith whom he considered his own.

Earnest Brunson was a Godly man who attended church avidly and read the Bible daily. Most people would agree that he was a man of strong will, outspoken and at all times stubborn. However, he always put family first, led with a caring heart and was an excellent judge of character. A humorous guy and always the life of the party; It's guaranteed that you can hear him before you see him.

During his retired years, Mr. Brunson battled with several underlying health issues. Like the book of Job, he never lost faith in God even under the most heartbreaking circumstances. He persevered through many trials, tribulations and hospitalizations knowing that God is in total control. It is with profound sadness and heavy hearts to announce that Earnest Lee Brunson is predeceased by his siblings Rufus, Christine, Adell, and Esaw.

He is survived by his wife Marsha Dixon, three children: Sha'worne Manuel-Smith, Randy and Danielle Brunson, four grandchildren: Synsere DeVine, Amir Washington, Sanaa Azhane' Manuel, Dimiere Dominique Clarence Brunson and Randi Danielle Terry Brunson, ten siblings: Margaret, Jacob, Mary, Ruthamae, Gracie Mae, Thomas, Moses, Shirley, Pernell and a plethora of nieces and nephews.
