Obituary

When you think of everlasting love and dedication, rest assured, Warren Eugene Berry was nothing short of that. Born in Baltimore, Maryland to Cleotha Berry and Muriel White, Warren has since become a loving, selfless father and grandfather of four. His love for his life and his family did not end with his departure, however. His smile was contagious, the sound of his laughter spread for miles, and his touch left the softest imprint imaginable.

Any free time Warren had, he filled it with caring for his girls and playfully telling his dogs and cats to, "Get away from me!" His voice will forever and always ring through our homes and fill our hearts with joy. This is a memory that will surely never fade away.

Warren left us unexpectedly, but at peace in his own home on January 19th, 2021. He is survived by his three daughters, Sydney Nicole Berry, Courtney Cassandra Berry, and Lauren Nabors.

Dearest Warren, you were our rock and we will never forget you. We hope that our days will soon get easier and that the cries will one day turn into laughter again. The life that you lived was not in vain and we shall carry you forever more.

Fly Away

*As we watch you fly day by day
We never knew it would end this way
As we turn to your heart for comfort and relief.*

*You told us the things we needed to hear.
For the love we have for you Daddy made us glad! Although we sit around and wonder why you left us sad. As time goes by and by we will say to you "You're Free, You're free!"*

So spread your wings and soar. And always remember we will be grateful for your grace, love and wisdom. As we close this poem with love, peace and faith We say to you Daddy, We Love You. So spread your wings and fly away, fly away.

I'm sure we will meet another day.
