

A Broken Heart

I'll never forget the day you left and found your way back home.
It was on this day my heart broke into a million pieces.
This day changed my life forever.
The pain that lives inside me will never go away.
It's a pain that hurts my heart every single day.
-I love You Mom

Blessed-Beautiful-Faithful-Peaceful-Loving-Kind-
Caring-Gentle-Hardworking-Compassionate-Considerate-Devoted

Mother, Grandmother, Great-grandmother, Sister, You are really a one of a kind Mother.

I would pick you all over again and again. Amen

Ps: You are always saying, "Thank You"
If we did something for you – "Thank You"
If we brought something for you – "Thank You"
If we gave something to you – "Thank You"
Combed your hair – "Thank You"
No Mother! All thanks to you – Thank You for You !

Obituary

Curdel May Francis Davis was born December 19, 1937 to Albert Francis and Rosaline Lee, in St. Elizabeth Lititz, Jamaica, W.I.. Curdel was the 5th child out of 7 children. At the age of 3 years old Curdel went to live with her aunt Kathleen Pinnock in Kingston, Jamaica.

As an adult, Curdel worked as a seamstress. She met Alton Davis who she fell in love with. They were married on June 21, 1969. They were blessed with seven children: Evette, Alton, Carol, Paulette, Patrick, George and Richard.

Curdel and her husband migrated to The United States of America in 1970. Curdel worked as a Nursing Assistant at Fairfield Nursing Home (currently Hebrew Home for the Aged) for 23 years before she became ill and was unable to work.

Curdel was a very quiet, humble and graceful lady. She was not an outgoing person. Curdel worked very hard and did the very best for her family. She enjoyed crocheting, planting in her garden, reading her romance novels, watching her soap operas, game shows, news, westerns and minister programs.

Curdel will be missed by her seven children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, sisters, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, love one's and friends.
