Steve's Life Journey

Steve Winford Carter was born to the late Annamarie Lynette Carter and the late Cecil Winford Ault in Georgetown, Guyana, on September 26, 1963. He was honored to have had a loving adopted father, the late K.C. Carter, who is credited for raising Steve and his seven siblings.

As he matured into a young adult, Steve attended high school in Brooklyn, NY, and upon graduation he worked for several companies including the World Trade Center and various other jobs in New Jersey.

On Friday, January 22, 2021, Steve moved on to Paradise. Steve is survived by his wife, Donna Carter, whom he married in 2005; his beloved son, Jerome Andrew Carter, and daughters, Alicia Carter, Damonya Bronson and Jamira Young. Steve is also survived by his brothers, Cecil James Carter (Sandra), Stanley St. Auburn Carter (Marie Suzie), Anthony Trevor Ault; and sister, Michelle Angela Carter; nephew, Joshua K.C. Carter, and niece, Tanya Jewel Carter; grandchildren, Jaden Carter, Joseline Carter and Shannon Montague; and a host of other nieces, nephews and friends.

Steve was predeceased by siblings, Annabelle Mary Carter-Obey, Janet Teresa Carter-Deygoo, Jerome Andrew Carter and Julian Christopher Carter.

Steve will be greatly missed. His memory will be forever cherished and loved. He will remain always in our hearts and to all who knew him.

Poem of Life

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys.
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord
