Obituary

Ruth Ann (Mack) Caster was born to the late Oscar Mack Jr. and Alice Ruth Mack on July 27, 1947 in Paterson, NJ.

Toodie, as she was affectionately called was united in holy matrimony to the late Joseph Caster. To this union two children were born, Joseph (Quaheem) Robert Caster and Zonya Yvette Leary.

Toodie was educated in the Paterson Public School system and was employed at Romans in Saddle Brook, NJ until they closed. She later became employed with the Paterson Public School system from which she retired in 2010. Her love of children led her back to work, until her health began to fade.

Toodie loved to cook for her family members and friends. She was well known for her macaroni salad, fried fish and let's not forget the sweet potato pie and banana pudding. Toodie was a faithful member of the New Creech Temple United Holy Church in Paterson, NJ, where she especially enjoyed attending Wednesday night Prayer Service.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her siblings, Eugene Mack, Carey Eugene Mack, and Kelvin Mack, Sr.

Ruth Ann departed this life on Thursday, January 21, 2021 at her home.

She leaves to cherish wonderful memories: her children, Joseph Robert Caster of Virginia and Zonya Yvette Leary (Lorenzo Leary, Sr.) of Paterson, NJ; nine grandchildren: Muriah, Latoya, Myesha, Keanna, Myasia, Quaheem, Lorenzo, Lanasia, and Jayden, Bonus; grandson, Morris Benbow; four great-grandchildren: Ke'miah, Sa'ryah, Meah and A'mear; sister, Zena Bragg; brothers, Abdul Stokes and Oscar Mack, III all of Paterson, NJ; godson, Rashon Mack; sisters-in-law: Patrica Mack and Mary Lee Mack; loving and devoted friend, John Cain and a host of nieces, nephews and friends. Toodie was loved by so many. She will be greatly missed.
