Obituary

Alfred Oscar Williams was born on April 8, 1940 to Mr. Oscar Williams and Ena Williams. Alfred grew up with his sister, Delores Adams in Harlem, New York. The two of them shared a special bond that was inseparable. Alfred always made sure his sister and her family were well. He was a hard worker and his commitment to family unity was evident in his ability to keep everyone together.

Alfred graduated from Harran High School and then proceeded on his journey to work at St. Luke's Hospital where he became a short-order cook. Alfred worked faithfully, walking up the hospital hill everyday for 37 years. It was during his years of working at St. Luke's Hospital that he met his wife, Alice Williams in 1956. The two of them fell in love and were joined in marriage 1963, fulfilling the longevity of 57 years of marriage. It was during this union of longevity that Alfred and his lovely wife birthed and raised four daughters, of which two were twins. Alfred always taught his daughters to stick together like the three musketeers, all for one and one for all. His phrase is repeated until this day by his daughters as a memorable principle that became a reality.

Alfred's life was exemplified as a strong family man that extended himself toward other endeavors in support of organizations within the community and abroad. He was a member of Mother AME Zion Church; he was a Mason of Hiram Lodge, First Scottish Rite Grand Lodge; he was a financial supporter to children orphanages in third world countries and he was a Partner of Reach Out and Touch Ministries, where he received Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior of his life.

Alfred's favorite activity was reading the newspaper daily and eating his favorite sweet, a Hershey candy bar. He also enjoyed making spaghetti for the Harding Village Community during his visits to North Carolina. His legacy of displaying hospitality to family and friends during holidays and making sure everyone had food to eat will not be forgotten. Alfred's Motto that will always be remembered: "No one in my family will ever go hungry."

He was preceded in death by his daughters, Patricia Williams-Mendoza (2020) and Pamela Williams-Jackson (2011). Left to cherish his precious memories: wife, Alice Williams of Harlem, NY; daughters, Angela Williams of Bronx, NY and Pastor Carol Warr (Pastor John Warr) of Harlem, NY; his sister, Delores Adams of Brooklyn, NY; twelve grandchildren; four great grands; one Godson; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

God Knows Best

Lord, stay close by when showers fall
Upon the plans we make;
Help us to always understand
It is you who gives and takes.
For your ways are not our ways
And our thoughts are not Yours;
Our plans are sometimes foolish,
But Yours are always sure.

Lord, lift us up when showers fall
On plans we thought profound;
Help us to somehow realize
Our plans are not always sound.
To finite minds, we must confess,
They seem to meet the test,
But help us Lord, to understand
It is you who knows what is best.

Your loving wife, Alice
Forever in my heart!
