Obituary

Sandra M. Thompson-Carless was born on January 9, 1949 at the NYC Presbyterian Hospital to the late Julia May Allen & John Olin Bryant.

She grew up in Harlem & Washington Heights. She graduated from George Washington H.S. with honors in the late 60's. At the age of 17, Sandra began to follow & work for the Nation of Islam & eventually became a Muslim. In her early 20's she began working at the U.S. Post Office. In January, 1975, Sandra welcomed daughter Doreen Street. After Doreen's birth, Sandra discovered her true calling & became an accountant. In May 1977, she welcomed her son, Rashied S. Thompson. For over 50 years she continued working as an accountant, sacrificing to make sure her children had what they needed & wanted. In the early 90's, she earned her B.S. in accounting. With added skills and education, Sandra began to climb the corporate ladder. In the mid 90's she secured a position with the Salvation Army of New York. She remained in her position for twenty years retiring in 1990 due to failing health.

In addition to her parents, Sandra was preceded in death by siblings Saundra Boyce (2016), William ((2001); She leaves to cherish her love & mourn her absence Husband, David Carless; Daughter, Doreen Street; son, Rashied S. Thompson; grandchildren: DeCarlo A. Chappell 2nd & Desirae N. Thompson; sisters: Mary Lou Bryant & Lilly J. VanDyke as well as a host of other relatives & friends too numerous to name.

Son, Rashied:

"I don't even know what to say about the true GOAT, (greatest of all time.) She was the strongest woman I knew. I know she kicked cancer's & covid's butt while still on dialysis. She was a loving mother who made sure her children had what they needed in life to succeed."

Sandra Carless was a fighter. Even though she sometimes complained. She never give up. For over 15 years you worked 40 hours a week while continuously going to dialysis three times a week for 3 hours. In late January, her illnesses got the best of her & she just didn't want to suffer & be in pain anymore. On January 26, 2021 she closed her eyes.

Daughter Doreen:

I'm okay. I'm not saddened because I know she's okay & pain free & not suffering. Right now I know for a fact she's at peace with her mom & brother playing spades. Mommy, Nana cheats & so watch her & please don't worry about me & DeCarlo. Love u."

Husband David:

In the mid 90's she started working for the NYC Salvation Army. She faithfully worked there for about 20 years. While working there, she met, & feel in love with co-worker, David B. Carless. On Feb 6, 2007 they were united in Holy Matrimony. She continued to work until she retired due to her medical conditions.

It is narrated that Muhammad said:

"O God, forgive our living and our dead, those who are present among us and those who are absent, our young and our old, our males and our females. O God, whoever You keep alive, keep her alive in Islam, and whoever You cause to die, cause him to die with faith. O God, do not deprive us of the reward and do not cause us to go astray after this. O God, forgive her and have mercy on her, keep her safe and sound and forgive her, honor her rest and ease her entrance; wash her with water and snow and hail, and cleanse her of sin as a white garment is cleansed of dirt. O God, give her a home better than her home and a family better than her family. O God, admit her to Paradise and protect her from the torment of the grave and the torment of Hell-fire; make her grave spacious and fill it with light."

O Allah, forgive Sandra and elevate her station among those who are guided. Send her along the path of those who came before, and forgive us and her, O Lord of the worlds. Enlarge for her her grave and shed light upon her in it.
