Obituary

Bernard Brown Jr. was affectionately known as “BB” or “Big Sal” of Paterson New Jersey. He was called home Friday, January 29, 2021 at St. Joseph's University Hospital in Paterson, New Jersey.

BB was born January 19th, 1980 in Paterson, New Jersey to Martha Brown and Johnny Simpson of Paterson, New Jersey. He attended Public School #6 and continued his education at Eastside High school located in Paterson, NJ. Although he was big in size he was known as a gentle giant. He gave many such courage and hope and he reminded us all of the preciousness of life. He loved bringing his family together during special times. He enjoyed playing a variety of different card games and spending time with his family and friends. He also enjoyed going to eat at a variety of different restaurants.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Bernai' Brown, his grandmother, Dorothy Robinson and his sister, Janelle Simpson.

BB is survived by his mother, Martha Brown, and father, Johnny Simpson; two sons, Kashawn and Ka'Ori; a daughter, Paris; three sisters, Crystal, Dieticia, Trice; five brothers, Alvonte, Shaneek, Khali, Malichi, Johnny; one niece, Ah'Mia; nephews, Jamal, Zamir, Kamar, Quameen; one special aunt/mom, Diane Robinson, cousin, Tamika, Jody, Tyshawn, Tatiana, Rayzier, RaeOnna; special brothers, Shableek, Jason, and KG; a special sister, Riyyah; one very very special friend, Tara Crawford and a host of other friends and relatives.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
