Obituary

Dorothy Johnson was born on June 15, 1948 in Bronx, New York to Daisy and Louis Mack, Sr. She was one of eight children. She was the first born daughter of the set of twins born to Daisy and Louis Sr.

Dorothy received her formal education in the New York City public school system. She attended Walton High School in the Bronx. After graduating High School, Dorothy worked for the Broadcast Media Company for 19 years. She later went on to work for American Federation of Television & Radio Artist for 18 years until she retired in 2014.

Dorothy, (also known to her family as “Queenie”), enjoyed life and truly enjoyed being retired. She loved to shop and she loved to travel the world with her twin sister Mae. The two were inseparable. Dorothy’s greatest joy was to put a smile on her loved ones faces. She made sure that her only son Melvin Jr. had the best of everything. Melvin Jr. was her pride and joy. She loved to cook and she loved to spoil her family members. Dorothy loved to bake pies from scratch. Her homemade biscuits were a family favorite at holiday time. She gave the greatest gifts. She was an avid reader and she loved to watch old westerns during her down time. Dorothy loved to laugh. Every time you saw her she had a smile on her face. Dorothy was a loving mother; dedicated sister and an amazing aunt and an overall beautiful person. She was kind to all who knew her. She could make a stranger feel like they knew her forever. She was always there when you needed her. All who knew her loved her.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents Daisy and Louis Mack Sr., and Brothers Leon Mack, Clyde Mack, and Louis Mack Jr.

Dorothy was called home on February 3, 2021. She leaves to cherish her loving memory, her devoted son, Melvin Eric Johnson Jr., her three sisters, Mae Mack, Angela Mack and, Eloise Gary; brother, Vernon Mack; nieces, Crystal Mack and Regine Gary; nephews, LaRon Mack, Delano Mack, Timothy Mack and Reginald Mack; brother-in-laws, Michael Gary, Alfred Johnson and Joseph Washington; Sister-in-laws, Ethel Washington, Doris McMillan, Hazel Johnson, Shirley Johnson, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Remember Me

To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful I will never return,
I am at peace with myself and the Lord,
I cannot speak, but I can listen
I cannot be seen but I can be heard,
So remember me in your heart and thoughts,
Remember me in your memories,
Remember me of the times we loved,
Remember me of the times we laughed,
Remember me of the times we cried,
Remember me of the times we fought
And always remember me of the times we lived together. I am resting in peace with the highest hope that some day we shall all unite again in God's Kingdom.
