Obituary

On Monday, February 8th, 2021, Luce Merisier (better known as Nini) born on October 10th, 1935 in Cavayon, Haiti, went home to glory. Nini passed away at home in the loving care of her family members. Her parents, Ephani Bauger (Nicknamed Fieyol) and CeLima Merisier, had three children of which she was the eldest, followed by Ines, and Elima Ageno who is deceased.

Survivors include her four children :Mirielle, Gladice, Rose Michelle and Rosemon, her sister Ines, many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

In Haiti, Luce was a merchant and a cook . She was warm, welcoming and family oriented. Above all she was a woman of God Who found strength in prayer and worship. She loved to sing and making people laugh.

In Haiti Luce was a member of the Assembly of Christian Churches in Ka fu furye, Port-au-Prince Since 2009, when she emigrated to the United States, she was a proud member of the Haitian Evangelical Missionary Church in Harlem, New York.

She was a mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister and a great friend to everyone she encountered.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
