OBITUARY

George Berkeley was born to the late Pauline Ponzi and Wilmot T. Berkeley, on April 14, 1946, in New York City. George was educated through the New York City Public School system where he made honors. Then he attended Bronx Vocational High School and John Jay Technical School. In 1991, George completed the Building Maintenance Program, issued by New York City's Department of Housing Preservation and Development. He was extremely confident when performing any tasks from electrical wiring, plumbing, and painting just to name a few. Uncle George acquired many skills and always offered to lend a helping hand. He retired from Building Services in 2005.

Despite his illnesses, George always believed in prayer. George was a faithful man. He enjoyed listening to R & B, and the Oldies but Goodies. He loved to watch all types of movies. Even the ones with low ratings, George would watch and suggest for you to see it as well, saying, "it's pretty good," although it really wasn't. George loved following all sports and dining. He had a favorite dish from many places, but his favorite restaurant was Dinosaurs. George was a proud man who loved his family, friends, and brotherhood.

George joined the M. W. King Solomon Grand Lodge and honored being a member. He was an active member until his illnesses, but continued to fight for what he believed in.

George is preceded in death by brothers, Joseph and Jimmy.

He is survived by: his nieces, Allyson (Al) and Christal; nephew, Jeffrey; grand nieces, Zuri, Ashanti and Christina; grand nephews, Zaire, Zayden and Donnie; a host of great-grand nieces and nephews; sister-in-law, Ellen; and son, Jerome. Uncle George will be remembered by his dear friends and extended family.
