OBITUARY

Terrence Rodelle Caldwell, 45, of Newark, New Jersey, passed away on Sunday, February 14, 2021 in his home.

Terrence was born on January 6, 1976, in Newark, NJ to the late Alexander Hines and the late Nancy Caldwell.

He attended Harriet Tubman elementary school and University High school in Newark, NJ. He was very active into music, where he was in the school chorus, along with his deep baritone voice, wowed the crowd. He continued is education Seton Hall University.

Terrence enjoyed watching football, especially when his favorite team, the Buffalo Bills played. If you ever said anything bad about his team, you had better watch out because he would come for you. He also enjoyed watching wrestling and made sure he paid for every pay-per-view event that was coming on. Terrence also loved to bowl, which was a hobby that never got old to him, he bowled until he was not able to bowl anymore.

Terrence was predeceased by his mother, Mrs. Nancy Caldwell.

Terrence is survived by two loving daughters, Tierra Burge-Caldwell of Berlin, NJ; Tiana Nicolson-Caldwell of Newark, NJ; one loving brother, Tyree Caldwell, Sr. of Newark, NJ; two sisters, Tilisa Caldwell, of East Orange, NJ, and Tiffany Cary(Terrence) of Newark, NJ; three nieces and one nephew, Tara Caldwell, Tyra Caldwell, Kashari Woodridge, and Tyree Caldwell, Jr., all from Newark, NJ; one aunt, Berdie Kelly(Matthew) of Newark, NJ; two uncles, George Wheeler and Macky Wheeler(Fay), both of Prosperity, SC. And a long time friend of the family, Alojé Burge of Pleasantville, NJ; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends who cherish his memories.
