Obituary

In accordance with the will of our heavenly father our beloved son, father and friend, John Henry Perkins Jr. known to his friend's whispers departed this life on February 5, 2021.

John was born on May 9, 1949 in the Bronx, New York to Mr. John Henry Perkins Sr. and the late Catherine Perkins. He was preceded in death by his sister Barbara Moragne-Thompson. John received his formal education through the New York City Public School system. John was loved by his family and friends. John worked as an electrician for several years and later on worked in the garment industry as a truck driver.

John repented his sins and accepted Jesus Christ in his life on January 6, 2021. John enjoyed sports, as well as watching Blaxploitation movies, spending time with his family especially on Thanksgiving and Christmas. His battle with cancer showed his courage in facing life challenges with a smile, despite the pain; John came out a hero and stayed until the end.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories: his father John Henry Perkins Sr., brother-in-law Chet, his two daughters and son Nicole, Teeka and Jomar, his two nieces Shaquana and Lashaya, his nephews Marvin and Donald, his grandsons Taurean, Tyron, Reginald, Jahmeel, Dionte', Jordan, Jomar Jr., Javeon, and Josia, his granddaughters Janasia, Jezenee and Jonai, his two great granddaughters Amiyah and Star, his great nieces and nephew Lavah, Madison and Ya'mel, his daughter-in-law Nikki, his sons-in-law Dwayne and Jeff, other family members and close and dear friends.

In Tears We Saw You Sinking

In tears we saw you sinking
And watched you fade away.
Our hearts were almost breaking
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping
So peacefully and free from pain
How could we wish you back
To suffer that again?
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home
