Obituary

Mary Alice Myers was born in Lamar, South Carolina on August 22, 1932 to Edward Dargan and Alice Aaron Dargan. She was the youngest daughter of twelve children.

Mary graduated from Spalding High School in South Carolina. She continued her education at Polarground Vocational School.

She was later joined in matrimony to the late Edward Louis Myers. Mary Myers had six children: Randy Myers, Edward Myers, Jr., Theresa Myers, Mardestine Myers, Nathaniel Myers (deceased) and Rashid Alim.

Affectionately known as “Momma Myers”, Mary Myers became a pillar of her community by becoming PTA President for PS 100 and 136, President of the Block Association and many other community outreach programs. Her home was always opened to any and all looking for a good meal and loving conversations.

She leaves behind: her brother, Dudley Dargan; niece, Betty Pressley; cousin, Josephine Jackson; five children and seven grandchildren, Dwayne Mitchell, Joey Mitchell, Dawanna Taylor, Edward Reeder, Ryan Reeder, Kristian Candie and Rafiq Alim; six great grandchildren, Imani Mitchell, Mekhi Sullivan, Dylan Taylor, Ryleigh Reeder, Mason Mitchell and Madison Mitchell; her good friend, Sally Stovall; and a host of family and friends.

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8

There is a time for everything, and
A season for every activity under heaven:
A time to be born and a time to die,
A time to plant and a time to uproot,
A time to kill and a time to heal,
A time to tear down and a time to build,
A time to weep and a time to laugh,
A time to mourn and a time to dance,
A time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
A time to embrace and a time to refrain,
A time to search and a time to give up,
A time to keep and a time to throw away,
A time to tear and a time to mend,
A time to be silent and a time to speak,
A time to love and a time to hate,
A time for war and a time for peace.
