Spencer Draper, also known within the family as "Chip", was born on November 15th, 1967 and passed on May 16th, 2020.

Spencer Draper graduated from Rice High School and then went on to the U.S. Air Force. Spencer furthered his education and later earned his B.A. to become a nutritionist. During his lifetime, Spencer held many jobs, but he landed a job at Brook Aids Task Force that he loved.

Spencer survived one marriage, and after that he had a wonderful marriage with Tara Nicole Draper, which lasted 10 years.

Spencer's mother and father have previously passed, but his surviving family mourns his loss: Robyn Draper (sister), Gwendolyn Draper (sister), and many cousins, nieces, nephews, aunts, and uncles.

Spencer Draper, you will be missed, tremendously.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.

My loved ones, oh so dear:

But you see, the Master called me,

His voice was very clear!

I had made my reservation

A heaven bound ticket for one,

And I knew that He would call me

When He felt my work was done.

I know that your hearts are heavy

Because I have gone away,

But when the Master called me,

I knew that I could not stay.

Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you

My loved ones, oh so dear;

But, you see, the Master called me

And, now I'm resting here.

Yes, I've crossed on over to glory

And to you all I say

Just stay in the hands of Jesus

And we'll meet again someday.
