Obituary

Mrs. Regenia Ernestine Bacote Jenkins (affectionately called Jean by her family) was born on March 1, 1931, to the late Reverend Lee Clement and Regenia Harriet Bacote in the Community of Buck Hall in McClellanville, South Carolina, and departed this life on March 3, 2021.

She received her religious training at Howard Chapel A.M.E. Church. She attended public elementary school, Lincoln High School in McClellanville, SC and graduated from Laing High School, in Mt. Pleasant, SC. Shortly thereafter she migrated to New York City. In 1957, Regenia married the late Ernest Jenkins, Sr. in New York.

She has a son, Ernest Jenkins, Jr and a daughter, Berna Jean Williams. Regenia was employed by the Master's Bakery of New York, Harry Levine Manufacture Company, and later for the City of New York, Department of General Services for more than ten years.

Regenia joined Metropolitan Community United Methodist Church, where her brothers and sister were members. She served as Membership Secretary, member of the United Methodist Women, and was honored by the Board of Trustees in 2000. She was a kind and loving person.

She leaves to cherish her memory: son Ernest Jenkins, Jr. (Deidra); daughter Berna Jean Williams (Kenneth Sr.). Grandchildren Kenneth Williams, Jr (Iesha), Leah Williams, Jovonnie Jenkins, and Timothy Jenkins; Great Grandchildren: Ke-ana Williams, Sean Mason, Kaiya Mason, Anissa Williams, and Noah Williams; brothers: Carl Bacote, Sr. (Ida), and Joseph Bacote (Andrea), and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

Lovingly submitted, The Family

Farewell

By Leah A. Williams

*I know that you are sad
I know that you must grieve
Just know that I trust in the Lord and for that I had to leave On Earth I had my time and we all know I wore many hats
But please be happy my soul is free and it's as simple as that
The love we've shared, unmeasurable
I will miss you all please believe
But in Heaven I'm with family and friends
I'm not trust and believe
Smile, laugh, and live
Rejoice when you speak my name Remember I will always love you and my love has no direction and one aim*
