Obituary

Dorothy Smith, better known as “Dot” was born on December 30, 1937 in Augusta, Georgia to Alberta Smith and the late Frank Smith. She was the eldest daughter of five children.

Dot was raised in New York City, graduated from Textile High School and acquired employment soon after.

She was joined in matrimony to the late Frederick Williams, and had three children, Deborah Smith, Frederick Williams, Jr. and the late Denise Williams.

Dorothy was a very intelligent, headstrong and most of all independent woman who strived to make it on her own. She dedicated more than 25 years as an insurance broker for Travelers Insurance until she was forced to retire due to illness. She was also full of life and laughter, and enjoyed spending time with family and friends during the holiday seasons.

On March 2nd, 2021, after a lengthy illness, Dot transitioned peacefully at Bainbridge Nursing Home in The Bronx.

Dorothy is survived by her mother, Alberta Smith; sister, Millicent Smith; daughter, Deborah Smith; son, Frederick Williams, Jr.; and grandchildren, Jason, Jamal and Penny Brown and Jonathan Edwards. Dorothy will be missed by all who knew her.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
