Obituary

Lorna Gwendolyn Sewell was born on March 14, 1946 in Kingston, Jamaica to late Nora McGregor and Fred Sewell. She left us on March 7, 2021 one week before celebrating her 75th birthday.

She attended Vauxhall Secondary School in East Kingston, Jamaica. While in Jamaica she helped create and built a loving home with her late domestic partner Mr. Lloyd Clair while raising six children. Lorna later migrated to the United States and lived in Brooklyn N.Y.

Lorna worked as a home attendant and babysitter for several years in New York. Lorna was fun, outgoing, and unapologetically herself and was sometimes known for following her own set of rules. One word describes her best and that we will certainly remember her as is a “FIGHTER”

To friends and family, she was known as Lorna but to her children she will forever be mom whom she taught to be brave, tenacious, fierce, bold, and taught us how to be overcomers of adversities.

She leaves to carry on her legacy, her children Christopher, Courtney, Adrian, Ingrid, Theresa, Althea, Shawn, and Tracey, a host of grandchildren, nephews, and loyal friends. Preceding her in death are her son Wayne, and her life partner Lloyd Clair.

Our mother

- Lorna, you left us on Sunday, March 7th, unexpectedly. It was a week to your birthday of March 14th. You would have been 75 years old.
- We are still in shock and disbelief that you are not with us. We all had plans to come and visit you after this pandemic is over but God had other plans for you.
- We all call you Lorna but you are and forever will be mom to us. We each have our unique memories, and stories of you that we will carry with us forever. Among many things you taught us it to be brave, tenacious, fierce, bold, over come adversity.
- You were a fun and outgoing woman and unapologetically yourself.
- You were a woman who instead of following the rules you created your own.
- You were far from a perfect mother but you tried and loved us in the way you knew how to.
- One word describes you best and we will all remember you as is a

Psalm 48: 14 (NIV)

For this God is our God for ever and ever;
he will be our guide even to the end.
