Obituary

George was born in the Bronx on November 5, 1935. He attended school in New York and worked for the New York City Transit Authority until he retired in 1987.

George will be dearly missed by Virginia, his wife of 68 years. Loving father to his children, Patricia, and Kevin. Cherished by his niece, Barbara Jean, his grandchildren, Miracle, AJ and Chris, his great grandchildren, Briyan, Ayannah, Marcus and Antonio.

You all knew him, which is why you are here today to help in celebrating his life. You know what a good man he was, and how hard he worked to provide for his family.

George was more than just a father. He was a son, a brother, and a husband. And he relished each of those roles and tried to be the best he could in them.

There is no doubt that George touched several lives. I know that he was important to everyone here. And I know that his legacy will live on in the lives of everyone who knew him. So, I hope that you will all be able to join me today, and every day, in celebrating the man that we all knew and loved.

He was a genuinely kind-hearted, selfless, and joyful man; His childhood friends Roscoe, Billy and Teddy will miss him fiercely but know that his memory and spirit will always be with us. He leaves an indelible mark on the hearts of all those around him.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Anon

Acknowledgments
