

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Blanche Elsie Mosley (Fairconnetue), 93, of Elizabeth, NJ, transitioned peacefully on March 16, 2025. She was born on February 2, 1932, in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, to the late Edwin Fairconnetue and Margurete Bennett.

To her family, she was "Ma," Grandma, or Gigi, and to friends, she was affectionately known as Mrs. Mo. Blanche served for many years at St. Benedict's High School as Director of Food Services, and at St. Mary's School as a Teacher's Aide. She also worked as the Receptionist for the Benedictine Sisters of Saint Walburga Monastery in Elizabeth, NJ, and retired in 2023.

Blanche was predeceased by her husband, John Mosley; son, John Mosley Jr. (Deborah); daughter, Valerie Mosley; and grandson, Jeffrey Oakley. She is survived by two sons, Michael Mosley and Theodore Mosley (Margie); two daughters, Lillian Pryor (Richard) and Grace Oakley; 12 grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren, and a host of nephews and nieces.

Blanche was strong in her faith and ensured that all who were in her presence knew about Jesus Christ. She loved cooking, crocheting, music, and the arts. She was a beautiful example of a disciple of Christ, and her gentle spirit and generosity will be remembered by all who were fortunate to know her. Her wisdom and kindness will be deeply missed.
