

A Mother's Love

A Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion and of sacrifice and pain,
It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may For nothing can destroy it or take that love away . . .
It is patient and forgiving
when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking . . .
It believes beyond believing when the world around condemns,
And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems . . .
It is far beyond defining,
it defies all explanation,
And it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation . . .
A many splendored miracle man cannot understand
And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.

Obituary

Brenda Denise McDonald, was born on April 29, 1957 to the late Roger Lee and Eleanor Shelton McDonald in Newark, NJ. She grew up in Hayes Home in the Central Ward section . She attended 18th Avenue Elementary, and West Kinney Jr. High.

Brenda worked for the City of Newark Police Department, as a Crossing Guard for 4 years she retired after working 15 years for Newark Airport (EWR), as a Customer Service Rep.

As years went on in her life she met a fella by the name of Pete Jr. McDaniel as they relationship continued they had 3 beautiful daughters, Kahroma (Tilda), Shaquanah (Piggy), and Rasheedah who they Love so dearly.

Our mother Loved the Lord at the age of 26 she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior. She attended Newark Tabernacle for many years with the late Pastor Herbert Green / Dr. Aubrey Gregory. But that wasn't it for her , she became an Evangelist to spread the word on how God has been good to her.

Blue crabs and Coca Cola was her craving all the crab places in town knew her from Miller St. to the crab truck on on Springfield Ave . She knew how to pick them if they not tasting right she's going right back for a new batch . Nunu / Grandmother loved and adored her grandkids and all kids that came her way. Every week she would come by to visit her grandchildren and they loved seeing her and all of the treats she surprise them with and home cooked meals.

In Brenda's home going journey she joins her parents, Eleanor & Roger Lee McDonald beloved siblings, Sylvia, Cindy, Kennth Lee, Roger Lee Jr., Herman Lee, Steven.
