Obituary

Miesha Harrison was born on November 13th, 1976 in Brookdale Hospital in Brooklyn, New York to Carolyn Harrison and the late Melvin Harrison. The youngest of her siblings, she was quiet but also the attention grabber of the family. She had an early passion for fashion and styling starting with her barbie dolls. She quickly moved to dressing herself with her own unique fashion sense.

She attended Uniondale High School where she made many close friends, some of which would come to her for advice on an array of subjects. Miesha found it important and made it a priority to be there for friends and family no matter the reason. She excelled so well in high school that she graduated early. She then studied at Nassau Community College then on to Adelphi University where she earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in May 2004.

Being quite the multitasker, she took on several challenges. Over her professional career, she worked as a finance assistant for The Bank of New York, and a financial analyst for North Shore LIJ, Gadge USA packaging design company and BMW of Freeport. She served as a fashion line consultant for APJ Boxing Club, and was a videographer, director and voice over talent for P-Dash Media, Inc. She worked as a real estate agent with Keller Williams of Greater Nassau selling homes. After taking a class at the Fashion Institute of Technology she met fashion designer and boutique owner J. Song Way, and assisted her as a stylist for several magazine photo shoots. Miesha eventually started her clothing line "Moniker by Miesha" which was added to the J. Song Way catalog.

She sat on the board for InDaHouseMedia and Philly Weekend In Atlanta, was the COO of Federal District Records under Protect Ya Neck and WuManagement. Furthermore she was a committee member for Harriet Tubman Learning Center where she assisted with the inaugural Fundraiser at Backstage Atlanta September 2020.

Everyone she encountered truly loved her spirit and energy. She loved to sing and loved R&B music. She had a profound love for shoes and clothing. Miesha loved living and enjoying life overall.

She leaves to grieve: her fiancé, Keith Patterson; her mother, Carolyn Harrison; a host of brothers and sisters, Zahora Guinyard, Melvin Harrison, Jr., David Guinyard, Raysaun McCray, Cleshae McCray, Kenneth Patterson, Kariym Patterson, James and Amber Patterson, Latifa Patterson, and Jeffrey Burton (preceded in death); aunts and uncles, Ralph, Lorraine, Juanita, Judy, Diane, Brenda, and Andrew; nieces and nephews, Spencer Harrison, Debonaire Patterson, Ashana Patterson, Jalen Patterson, Kariym Patterson, Jr., Shatajah South, James Arthur Patterson II, and Tyrell Burton; and a host of cousins and close friends.

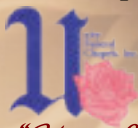

Revelation 21:3-5

3 With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”
5 And the One seated on the throne said: “Look! I am making all things new.” Also he says: “Write, for these words are faithful and true.”
