Obituary

Love Letters to Dwight

Dwight McDaniel was born on November 24, 1968 to Maerine McDaniel Harrington and the late Jesse W. Gilbert. He resided in Newark, New Jersey. Dwight departed this life on March 2, 2021. He was loved by many.

Dearest Doc,

A mother's most precious gift from God is a child. I will never forget the day you came through the door, slammed it and said, "I'm tired of you dressing me like a baby!" You was only 4 years old. I remember when I bought you a rabbit and after one week you said, "That rabbit has got to go he hasn't done one trick yet!" These are the memories that always makes me laugh. Son, you will always be in my heart and I will always love you.

Love, Mom

Dear Doc my baby brother,

I want you to know that I love you more than anyone could ever know. As your big sister, my responsibility was to protect you, and of course I couldn't protect you from everything. You are now with the greatest protector there is Allah. From Allah we came from to Allah we shall return. I'll hold you in my heart forever. Rest in Peace.

Love, Your loving sister Big Bird

Dear Doc,

Thinking about the times when dad would drop us off at Momma's house (Ellen Gilbert) is one of my most precious memories. We would ring the bell and she'd come to the top of the stairs and yell loudly "Who is it?" We would say at the same time, "Antwone and Dwight". Speaking in sync was a part of a brotherly bond that made me feel good inside. Lil bro, it's not goodbye it's I'll see you later.

Love Always, Ab

He Wished No One A Last Farewell

He wished no one a last farewell,
nor even said goodbye.
He was gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
They say time heals all sorrow,
And helps us to forget,
But time so far only proves
How much we miss him yet,
God gives us strength to face it,
And courage to bear the blow.
But what it meant to
"love" and lose him
No one will ever know.
