

My Last shared words to my Pops!!

Dear Marion, it's your grandson Marion I see you're still hanging in there man; its currently 6:22 PM March 12, 2021. I received the text and instantly thought about the worst "DEATH" but you were still fighting, it's weird we have the same name and yet were some strong fighters at heart! I see where I get it from. What I can learn that is positive from this is to hang in there," because your time will come" not to sound crazy about that nor messed up! I've been going through challenges lately and getting closer to hitting 21; I love music and through my art I express myself. I want to bring everyone together with my art and speak up, because I've been afraid of talking for so long. All the traumatizing things I have been through make me stand tall and strong as a man. Seeing you like this makes me want to face all of these fears as a man. You look like me man, can you help build me into a man? The only thing I want to leave is greatness, I know we never said this to each other before, but I love you.

Your grandson, Marion.
