Obituary

Chaundra Lynn Bussey was born on October 16, 1958 in Brooklyn, NY to the late Vivian B. Garrison, and Jeremiah Bussey of Brooklyn, NY.

Chaundra attended Boys & Girls High School and went straight on to enjoy modeling and ripping the runway walking in numerous fashion shows for local designers. Chaundra loved taking care of her three younger brothers and soon had her own family. Often called loving, caring and devoted mother and grandmother doing anything to see her children thrive and be successful.

Chaundra re-entered the workforce as a Teachers-Aid, then later a Home Health Aide she was a great caretaker. Chaundra was known as a frilly girl and loved sewing and creating her own styles with makeup and fashion.

She loved to dance the hustle, listen to all kinds of music and attend block parties and live concert events and shows. Her favorite season was Christmas time. She was easy to talk to and loved entertaining and hosting friends and family. Always trying to sing while cooking and preparing.

She earned the nickname blondie for her fierce short blonde cut. Chaundra could be sharp and quick with her words then kindhearted, gentle and warm with a laugh and that amazing smile.

Chaundra leaves to cherish her memory, her father Jeremiah Bussey, two brothers; Jerry Bussey and Keith Bussey, her children; Meliek, Stephanie, Jessica, and Angelica Bussey, and 10 grandchildren; Nasir, Maximus, Sayidah, Alani, Cairo, Jahari, Amius, Saravi, Zoelle, and Zi'Yore.

She also leaves to mourn her dear friend and fiancé Ronald Higgins a great host of close relatives and many friends.

Closing Prayer

If Roses Grow in Heaven

If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Mother's arms
and tell her they're from me.
Tell her I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy,
I'll do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.
