Obituary

Eric Graves born February 12, 1991.

He was funny loyal, friendly, a kind person would give you the shirt off his back.

He fixed and sold cars. He helped his father in construction business. If I didn't cook my baby cooked. He only sold dinners on the side for extra money.

He loved to dress and hair always tight. He also had a clothing line coming out called Low-Life. I'm still going to make that dream come true for him. He also detailed cars for a living, always making and experimenting with something. He kept busy.

He attended PS #15 and was also educated at Synder High School.

Eric didn't have any children or got married. But he has a niece. Every Brave Whitsett, a nephew, Malachi Justice Whitsett, mother, Phyllis Morgan, blood brothers, Amir Graves, Latif Whisett, sisters, Erica Stewart, Evann Stewart, Emori Stewart, and Allure Stewart, father Eric Stewart, wife Elizabeth Stewart, granparents, Inez Stewart, Barbara Graves and Pearlie Graves, step sisters and brothers, Alfred Morgan III, Philip Morgan, Daliswan Robinson, Kyzamir Morgan and Connie Morgan; and a host of cousins, family and friends.

God looked around His garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best. He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb, So, He closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be thine". It broke our hearts to lose you But you didn't go alone, For part of us Went with you The day God called you home.
