Obituary

Ronald H. York, affectionately called “Ron” by his closest friends, was born in Wilmington, North Carolina on May 12, 1946.

He was the first born of six siblings of the late Dorothy York and Treadwell York. He was preceded in death by sibling, Treadwell York, Jr.

Ronald attended the public schools of Wilmington, NC. After high school, Ronald joined the Army where he served as a P.F.C. while stationed in Germany. He served for 3 years and was honorably discharged in 1969. Later he was employed by GM, USPS, and Gimbles where he retired. He also worked temp for NY Telephone Company.

Ronald was outgoing, fun loving and a giving person. He loved to cook for family and friends. He was a good cook too—best collard greens, fried chicken and fish. He was an avid shopper. He loved fabulous suits, shirts and shoes. Ronald loved loved his music loud, his music and his old Western TV shows.

Ronald leaves to cherish his memory: Gloria, Ronald Jr., Jan, Pam and Rahiem; sisters, Patricia, Anna and Joann; brother, Roger; a host of nieces, nephews and cousins; and his dearest friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
