Obituary

Wanda (Sullivan) Jordan was born on June 10, 1938 to the late Roy Suber and Sarah Sullivan in Williamston, South Carolina where she grew up as a child. Wanda attended Caroline Grammar and High School from which she graduated. She was a member of New Prospect Baptist Church in her hometown. Later in life she converted to Catholicism.

She relocated to Brooklyn, New York during the 1950s to make it a permanent home and to raise her children. Wanda received her bachelor's degree in Psychology during the 1980s at York College in New York City. She worked at group homes for youth and young children helping them with shaping their lives along with the importance of knowledge, education and well living. Wanda also held positions of employment for several years at New York City's Covenant House Under 21, The Salvation Army, and several group homes as a psychology counselor. After she retired, she worked as a counselor doing home health care helping the elderly.

Wanda lived a vibrant life traveling with her best friend, discovering new places and things to do. She had a passion for music and loved dancing. She loved watching basketball and football, preferably her New York Knicks, and New York Giants. She also, loved spending time with her children and grandchildren playing board games and cards, doing puzzle books and watching TV.

She departed this life on Sunday, March 21, 2021, at Advent Health Hospital, in Tampa Florida, joining in spirit with her beloved son Wallace Jordan, her brother William Sullivan, her two sisters Edna Perkins and Patricia Williams. She leaves to cherish her loving memory, her sons Brian Jordan and Eric Carter, her daughters Cathy Phillips, Margie Jordan, Sarah Speciale and Pamela Jordan and 16 Grandchildren, 19 Great Grandchildren and 4 Great-Great Grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

IF WE COULD BRING YOU BACK

For a second you were flying,
like you always wanted too.
Now you'll fly forever
In skies of azure blue.
We'll see your smile in every ray
of sunshine after rain.
And hear the echo of your laughter, over the pain.
The world's a little quieter now.
The colors have lost their hue.
The birds are singing softly,
and our hearts are missing you.
Each time we see a little cloud
Or a rainbow soaring high.
We'll think of you gently
Wipe a tear from your eye.

If we could bring you back again,
For one more hour or day,
We'd express all our unspoken love;
We'd have countless things to say.

If we could bring you back again,
We'd say we treasured you,
And that your presence in our lives
Meant more than we ever knew.

If we could bring you back again,
To tell you what we should,
You'd know how much we miss you now,
And if we could, we would.
