Obituary

It is with deep sorrow and unconditional love that we mourn the passing of Joyce Pink Llewellyn, 77 on March 2, 2021, at Long Island Jewish Hospital. Joyce was born on November 24, 1943 at Union District, St. Ann Jamaica W.I., to Cornelius Pink and Dorcas Russell Pink.

She graduated from Breadnut Hill School, and worked as a cashier at Ocho Rios. She got married on January 29, 1983 at Union St. Ann, to the love of her life Andrew Llewellyn. Together they had three children. With her passion of helping people, she went on to a training Class at St. Ann's Bay Hospital as an aide. She frequently visited Kingdom Hall. Joyce migrated to the United States on December 19, 1988 with her husband and one of her sons. Her other two children joined them in 1991. She worked as a nanny for over sixteen years.

Her interest were dancing, singing, cooking, watching television, playing games on her iPod, and spending time with family and friends. As a woman of God, she was baptized in 2006 at Changing Life Christian Center in Brooklyn, New York.

She is survived by husband, Andrew Llewellyn; daughter, Fay Llewellyn-Marsh; son, Radcliffe

Llewellyn; son, Rubal Llewellyn; daughters-in-law, son-in-law, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, step grandchildren, sisters, brothers, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, cousins, nephews, nieces, and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, two sisters and two brothers.

Matthew 11: 28-30 Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you. Let me teach you, because I am humble and gentle at heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy to bear, and the burden I give you is light.

Heknowledgements

The family of the late Joyce Pink Llewellyn wish to express their appreciation for the kind thoughts and expressions of sympathy.
