Obituary

Charles Fisher was born on September 23rd, 1953 in Manhattan Bellevue hospital New York, NY to the late Charles Odom and Louise Fisher. Charles was affectionately known by his righteous name “Jamel” and his street name “Campy”. He was so much more than just a Black Man, he was a prolific family man, caring Partner, Father, Grandpa, Brother, and Friend.

Jamel grew up in the Mitchell and Mott Haven houses in the South Bronx where he was well known and loved. Jamel was a Boxer, worked for MTA in his early life and Access-A-Ride during his later years. Jamel had a passion for music, empowerment, enlightenment, entrepreneurship, and creating a strong community. Throughout his life he gave back and was the true embodiment of what it means to be a philanthropist. He coached basketball and was a mentor and father figure to anyone he could reach. He was a member of The Black Spades and a practicing Five Percenter. He lived by these codes and created mantras about how valuable, strong, important, and powerful black people are. He understood that knowledge is power and made sure to leave his mark on the world by gifting each of us with that knowledge and made we always knew what “Today’s mathematics” was.

Jamel loved music deeply and it was also a cornerstone of his many businesses. He was an entrepreneur and hustler and sold all types of things but was most known for music and nutcrackers. He loved the oldies but goodies the most. He passed on his musical genius to his son Unique.

Jamel leaves behind his life partner Johnine Johnson of 27 years, his partner in crime and mother of his child Angie, his siblings, Linda, Almeda, Janice (Deceased), Tony, Jeffrey, Thomas, his children Tamika, Latisha, Unique, April, Ashley, Aaron, Akeem, his grandchildren Sincere, Tyshawyn, Tyriq, Khari, Harmony, Kyasia, Malik, Kaycie, Kodi, his nephew Bobby and Wally. His niece Rasheeda, his best friends, Chill and Pom and his God children Daquan, Khadija, Buddha and Tawana. Jamel had countless spiritual family members whom he’s impacted and leaves behind.

He physically left the world on March 25th, 2021 at the age of 67 however his presence will forever live on. Although he will be sorely missed his legacy will continue to live through his family and friends and all that knew him as a neighborhood hero, mentor, Father, and a man of many trades. The family would like to thank everyone for the support and love they have received during this difficult time.

Forever Alive

Allah is the God in the Earth and Heaven above. He is just and true and there is no unrighteousness in Him. For He is not unseen but He is seen and heard everywhere for He is the all eye seeing.

Miss Me But, Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
