Obituary

Mamie Wilson was a caring Mother, Aunt, Grandmother, Godmother and Friend. She left this world on March 22, 2021 at age 72.

She was born to Minnie Robertson on July 21, 1948. After graduating from Brandeis High School, Mamie chased her dreams of being a computer analyst and married Richard Wilson.

Mamie loved listening to music and relaxing. She also had a caring heart, she opened her house to multiple people who needed a place to stay. If you ever needed anything, Mamie was right there to help.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her boyfriend, James; brother, Darryl; her sons, Lamont and Hakim; daughter-in-law, Omesha; her grandkids, Saq, CJ, De'Andre, Jahney, Hakim Jr., Khiry, Cam, Omari and Bentley; her great grandkids, Shiloh and Riley; niece, Saroya; nephew, Roland Jr.; and a host of Godkids, cousins and good friends. She also leaves behind her very special friend, Maria who was her caregiver to the end. She will be joining her only daughter, Tasha in the Gates of Heaven.

She will be laid to rest in Rosehill Cemetery in Linden, New Jersey alongside her late mother, Minnie; sister, Francine; and brother-in-law, Roland Sr.

God Sent For One Of His Angels To Come Home

There is an open gate
At the end of the road
Through which each must go alone
And there is a light we cannot see
Our Father claims His own
When tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an Angel came
And called my name
And took me by the hand
So when tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we are apart
For every time you think of me
I'm right here in your heart

Psalms 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A Tribute

You've gotten your wings now it's time to fly,
As I say my goodbyes to you try not to cry.
God has taken you home to where you're supposed to be,
No more suffering, No more tears,
No more worries,

You can now watch over me.

I know you're in heaven dancing and free,
But there's so much more you should be here to see.

So many things I never got to say.

Because I never thought that you would go away.

I never told you because I thought you knew,

But would that have changed,

What you planned to do?

I am glad that you are free from your fears held inside.

But I wish you'd come to me and put your pride aside.

It's a lonelier place this world without you,

I guess that you thought this was all you could do.

When I see you again I'll tell you that you were wrong,

And how much I've missed you

Each day you've been gone.
