Obituary

Celestine Johnson-Morton eighty years of age departed this life on Monday, March 22, 2021.

Celestine was born July 2, 1940 in Darlington, SC to the late Chester, Sr. and Willie Mae Johnson. She was the oldest of eight children, two preceded her in death.

Celestine attended Lamar High School, after graduating she relocated to Paterson, New Jersey in 1959, where she lived for sixty years.

She was a member of Serenity Baptist Church where she served as the President of the Nursing Unit for many years. She retired from North Jersey Development Center after twenty-five years.

Celestine loved to read her bible praying for and with others, spending time with family, laughing and always wearing a beautiful smile on her face. She was a loving and caring person, devoted wife, mother and friend, always thinking of others first. "To Know Her Was To Love Her."

Celestine leaves to cherish her loving memory her husband, Robert Morton; children, Carolyn, Benjamin and Romona; sons-in-law, Jerry and Robert; three brothers, Chester, Robert and Eddie; two sisters, Edna and Rudell; three sisters-in-law, Rosa, Cenceella and Della; seven grandchildren; eighteen great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Keep My Peace Alive

God sent me on a mission, just to smile
I was only passing through, for just a while
The whole time I was singing, and praising
Light of faith, it is Grace and it is Amazing
So when I move on, cry, but dry your eyes
Keep strong, keep on, keep my Peace Alive

Don't let troubles in, and wear you down
I carried my Cross, and I have my Crown
When the hard times come, stay together
Hold on to my Love, knowing it lasts forever
I love you, they say a true love never dies
Love me always, and Keep my Peace Alive

Hold on to my Trust, my Spirit is near you
When you call on me, I will always hear you
Give God all the Glory, remember in prayer
Remember, that I care, that I am still there
I know it's hard I just need you to try
Burden Laid Down now, Keep my Peace Alive

By Nichole
