Obituary

Ida Mae Greene was born on March 23, 1938 in Charleston, South Carolina, to the late Edna Brown Chisolm and James Chisolm. On Monday, March 22, 2021 God called one of his Angel's home.

Ida Mae received her education from the Charleston County School System. She was married to the late Allen Greene and then moved to Jersey City, NJ. She was known to many people as "Grandma/Granny" family was everything to her. She loved her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. There was nothing that she would not do for her family.

She loved to cook big meals especially collard greens, fried chicken, and most of all her macaroni and cheese. She liked to party and listen to music (Marvin Gaye, Al Green). She meant what she said and said what she meant.

Sis. Ida was a strong believer in Christ; she attended Mt. Horr AME Church in Charleston and was an active member of the youth choir and Sunday school.

In 1974 under the leadership of Rev. Albert D. Tyson Jr., Ida joined Mt. Pisgah AME Church. She has been a faithful member of the Senior Usher Board since 1980, she also served as head usher at one point, has served 35 years as a doorkeeper and was also a member of the South Carolina club.

Since her retirement from Central Laundry of 28 years and from PS School # 30 most days you can find Ida at the Salvation Army Day Care where she was the foster grandparent. In the evening, Ida enjoyed watching Wheel of Fortune.

Ida is preceded in death by her parents James and Edna Chisolm and one niece Edna Bailey.

Ida leaves to cherish her memories: daughter Barbara Land (Harry), son Glenn Greene, grandchildren: Katima (Armar), Darrell; great grandchildren: Armar Jr, Jamaya, and Skylar. eight sisters, Mary, Ruthie (John), Joyce, Margaret, Carolyn, Gloria, Louise, Peggy (Sam) and one brother Jimmy Rae Simmons.

A devoted daughter, wife, mother, grandmother/great mother, friend
