Obituary

Jean Lombrant Janvier was born on February 12th 1949 in Tomawo Bainet to his father Solon and mother Eloise Blaise Janvier, when he was a teenager he moved to Port -au -prince with his aunt mazina Cejuste better known as (madam Miracle) and his uncle Miracle Paul. He also lived with his older sister Sonia Janvier.

While living with his aunt he learned the truth about Jehovah. His love for the truth was so strong that dedicated his life to Jehovah and was baptized on August 12th 1972. Jean Lombrant Janvier was a zealous publisher of the kingdom good news, he used to wake up at 3:00AM to join the group of brothers and sisters at 4:00 AM for street witnessing. (Sou gran rue rive sou potay leogane) afterwards he would go with the others to get coffee at a sister's house named Lize.

On December 28th 1974 he married Gladys Cadeus and they had four children together: Jean Patrick Janvier, Frantz Hugues Janvier, Ricardo Janvier, Johnny Stanley Janvier. Jean Lombrant Janvier is survived by his Wife Betty Hector Janvier , his for sons and some of his siblings: Merante Janvier, Collin Janvier, Enyèse Janvier and several nieces and nephews.

Jean Lombrant Janvier was very hospitable and cared a lot for others. He also loved spending time with his friends playing soccer and dominoes at saira de leogane and wherever else he lived. After several years of battling diabetes he finally succumbed to the disease on Sunday April 4th at 7:42 PM. One of his favorite scriptures is found in the Bible in Revelation 21:4 that sates the following: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." That was his beliefs until the end.
